Arkansas Federation of Young Republicans

Constitution

PREAMBLE

We believe in the principles of representative government contemplated by the United States Constitution, the defense of free institutions and the encouragement of personal enterprise; that party government by the majority is an integral part of the American system; that to perpetuate popular government, it is essential for the policies and the prosecution of government to be in harmony with the Constitution; that the Republican Party is a party of representative government; and, that with these principles before us, we who are members of the Republican Party bind ourselves together as members of Arkansas Federation of Young Republicans and pledge ourselves to work for the advancement of these principles.

ARTICLE I – NAME AND AUTHORITY

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Arkansas Federation of Young Republicans, hereinafter referred to as the Young Republicans.

Section 2. AFYR shall be a sovereign entity, in support for, yet independent of, the Republican Party of Arkansas, and its chapters shall be separate entities independent of any existing Party structure other than the AFYR.

Section 3. AFYR shall be the sole body of authority over, recognition of, and representation for Young Republican chapters with the State of Arkansas.

ARTICLE II – OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Young Republicans are:

1. To develop an intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable Young Republican organization.
2. To build a network of people ages 18 to 40 inclusive within the Republican Party.
3. To provide a forum and opportunity for political expression and activity.
4. To train effective political workers.
5. To work in harmony with the Republican National and State Committees.
6. To support the principles, objectives and platform of the Republican Party
7. To work for the election of all duly nominated Republican candidates.

ARTICLE III – AMENDMENTS

This Constitution shall be amended by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of those voting at any State Convention meeting of the Young Republicans.
